RELIGIOUS PREFERENCE PRACTICE INFORMATION

The following information is stated so that all parties involved in the placement of a child in Raintree Village may be fully informed on the policy and practice of the board and staff regarding the religious preferences of the children.

Raintree Village is sponsored and primarily supported by the churches of Christ. All members of the board of directors and direct line child care supervisors must be members of the churches of Christ.

Children are accepted into care regardless of their race or religious background.

Raintree Village shall offer each child an opportunity for religious worship and education.

Children in care may attend church activities with staff members or attend the church of their choice whenever possible.

Raintree Village will arrange, or have arranged, such transportation and/or other accommodations for a child to attend the church of the child's choice whenever possible according to the procedures and practices for any appointment that a child must keep.

Raintree Village shall provide appropriate supervision for the children in care at all times, including times when the staff is attending church services.

I (we) have read the above statement of policy regarding respecting the religious preferences and choices of the child in care and understand such policy.
